JUDO

WORLD JUDO CHAMPIONSHIPS
SENIOR INDIVIDUALS & TEAMS
Rio de Janeiro, 2013

WORDS OF WELCOME

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

From August 26th to September 1st, 2013, the whole international judo family will gather together in Rio de Janeiro for the most important moment of the season: the World Judo Championships, Senior Individuals and Teams.

For seven days, the best judoka in the world will compete for the ultimate World Champion title in the 14 engaged weight categories. Nations will also compete for the world title in the team competition, an event that we hope will integrate the Olympic program in 2016.

The city of Rio de Janeiro is symbolic because after the success of London 2012, the next Olympic Games will be held in the Brazilian magapole in 2016. It was important for us to position ourselves early in the international calendar and the Judo World Championship will be the first worldwide event to be held in this early Olympic period. World Championships 2013 will therefore represent a perfect rehearsal of the 2016 Olympic tournament.

But Rio also marks the end of the testing period of the new refereeing and organizational rules that we have put in place last January. After the world championship, all the modifications that have been made will be analyzed and the final decisions will be taken for the upcoming Olympic qualification period.

We expect a huge turnout in Rio this summer. On behalf of the IJF, I would already like to thank and congratulate the Brazilian Judo Confederation, its President, Paulo Wanderley, and his team for the tremendous work that has been done so far to make this event which will be worldwide followed by the media, a new success for the international judo.

Mr. Paulo WANDERLEY
President
Brazilian Judo
Confederation

Dear Judo Family,

In 2007, the city of Rio de Janeiro hosted the “World Championships - Individual”, who left us great memories and was a milestone for the Brazilian judo.

This year we have the honor, granted by the IJF, to host another edition of the “World Championships - Individual and Team”, being the first major event of our sport in this new Olympic cycle that certainly fulfill an important role in the preparatory process of Rio January for the 2016 Olympic Games.

I like to express my sincere thanks to the Government of the State of Rio de Janeiro, the main responsible for the achievement and realization of this event, as well as our sponsors, for believing in our team of experts, who work with passion and professionalism, with the goal of offering all judo lovers a quality event in an atmosphere of peace and harmony between all involved.

A warm hug to all and welcome to Rio de Janeiro!
